A faint, light gray outline map of the state of Maine serves as the background for the entire page. The map shows the state's irregular coastline, including the numerous islands and peninsulas in the southern and eastern regions.

Engagement with MPS that Resulted in New or Strengthened Tobacco Policies

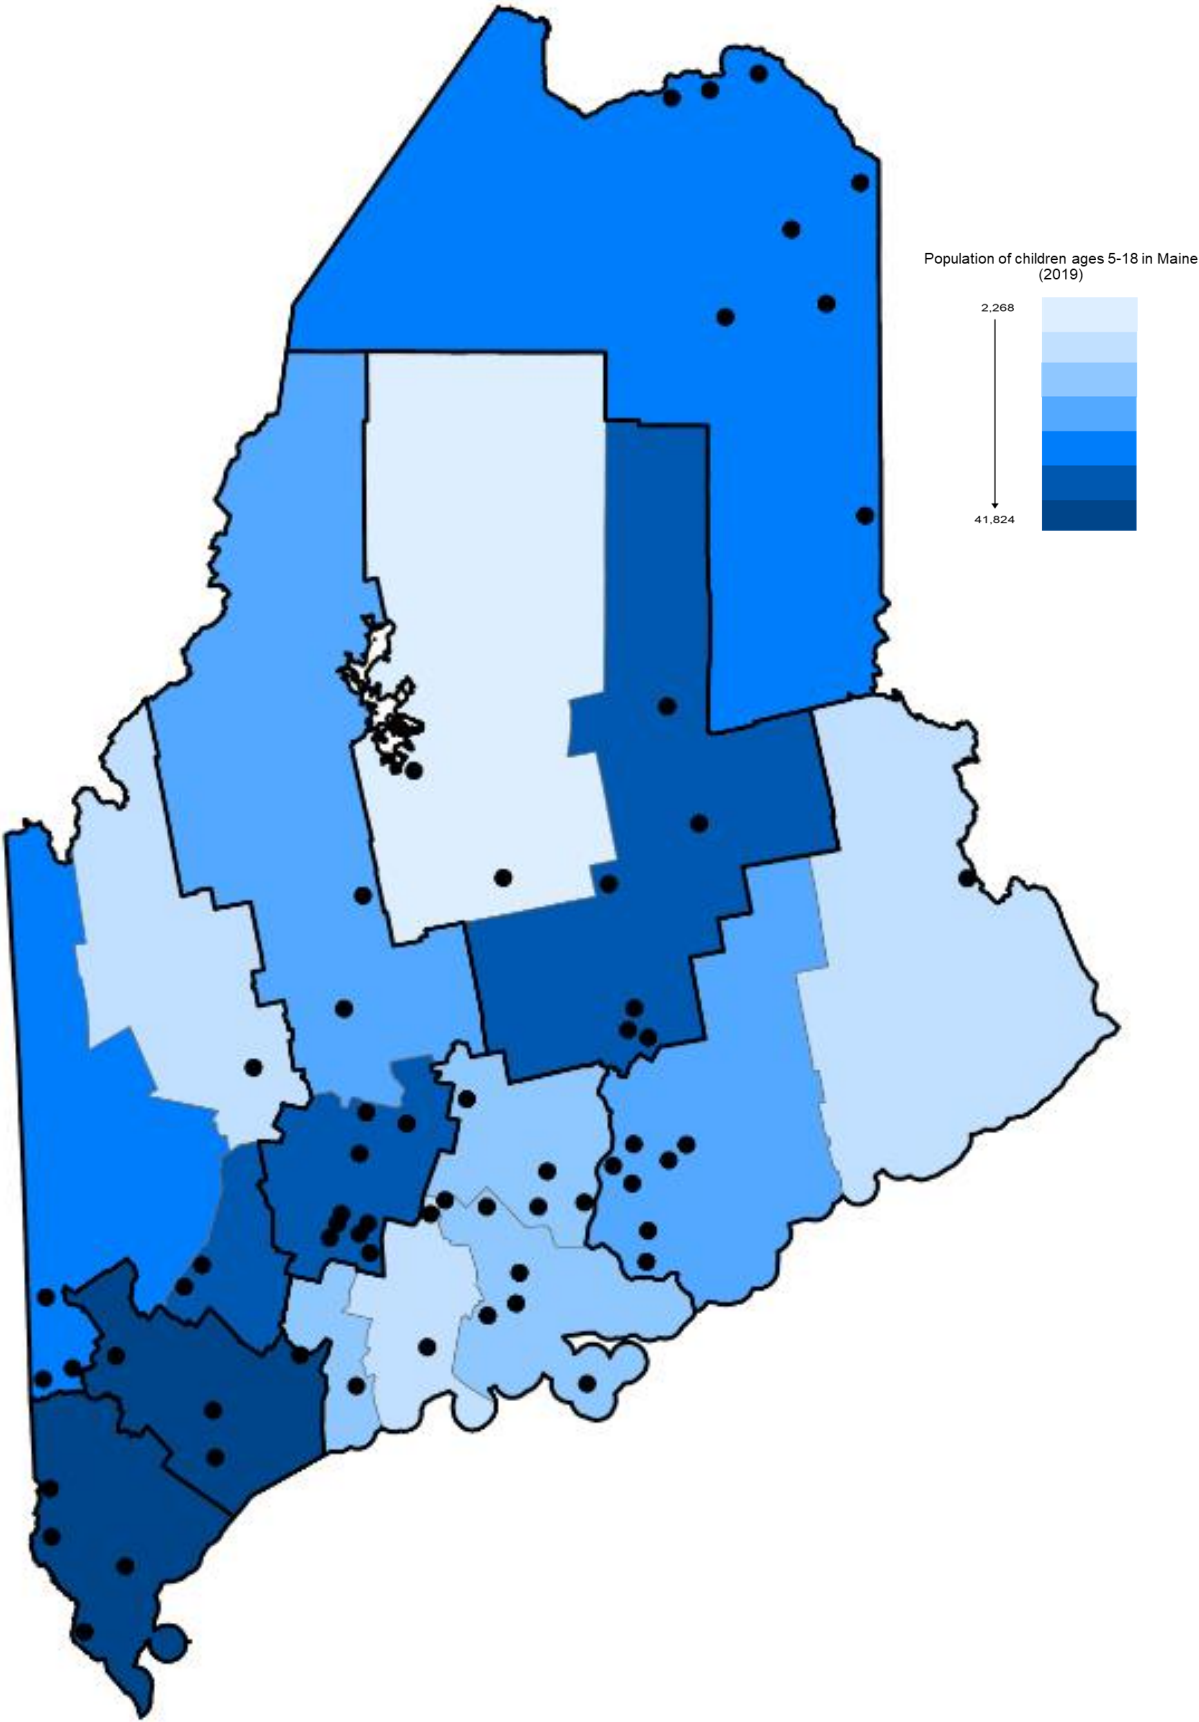

Prepared by: Partnerships For Health

Prepared for: MaineHealth Center for Tobacco
Independence

March 22, 2021

School Districts that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Child Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

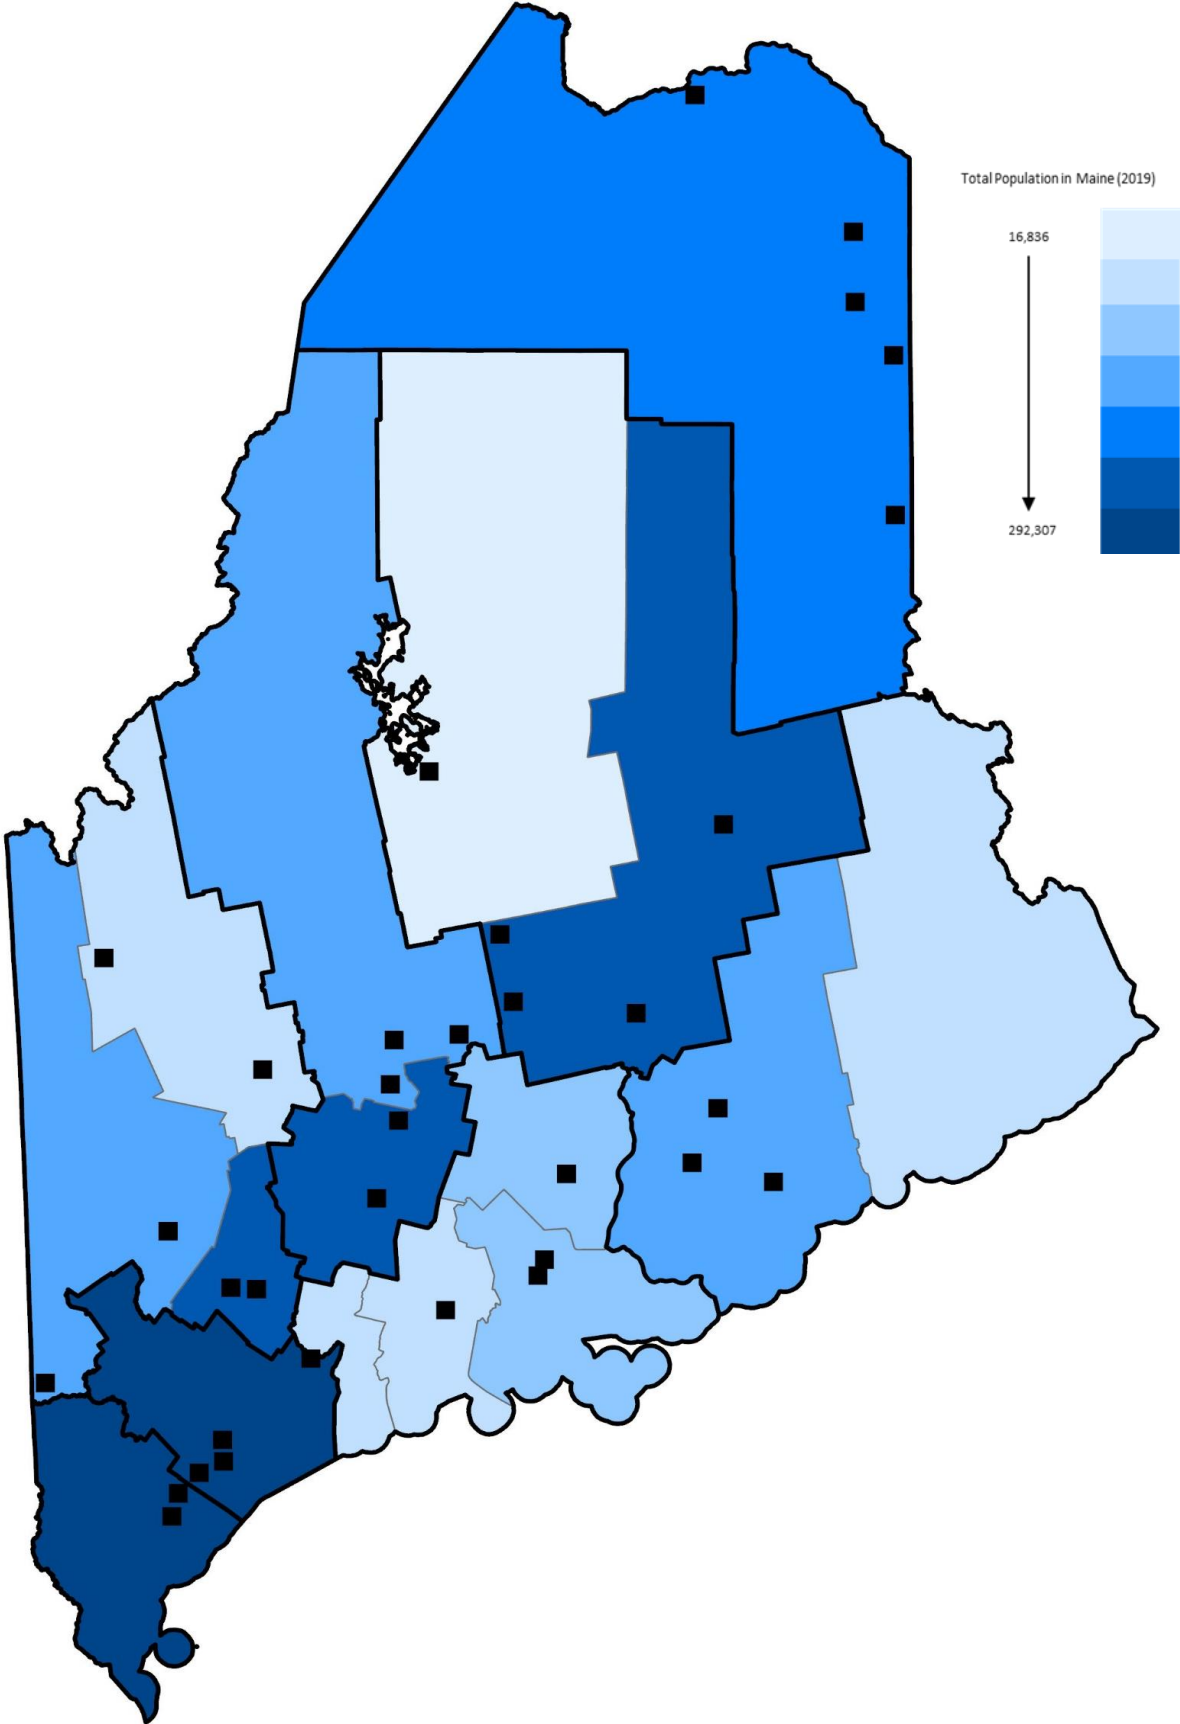

Reading the map:
The shades of blue categorize counties according to where children in Maine live.

Each symbol shows a school district that has strengthened their tobacco policies through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Clinical Sites that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

Reading the map:

The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine live.

Each symbol shows a town with a clinical site that has adopted policies that prohibit the use of tobacco products through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. A town may have multiple clinical sites that have adopted policies. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Clinical sites include hospitals, tribal health centers, behavioral health sites, and other healthcare agencies.

MAINE
PREVENTION
SERVICES

Maine Center for Disease Control & Prevention
Department of Health and Human Services

Higher Education Institutions that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

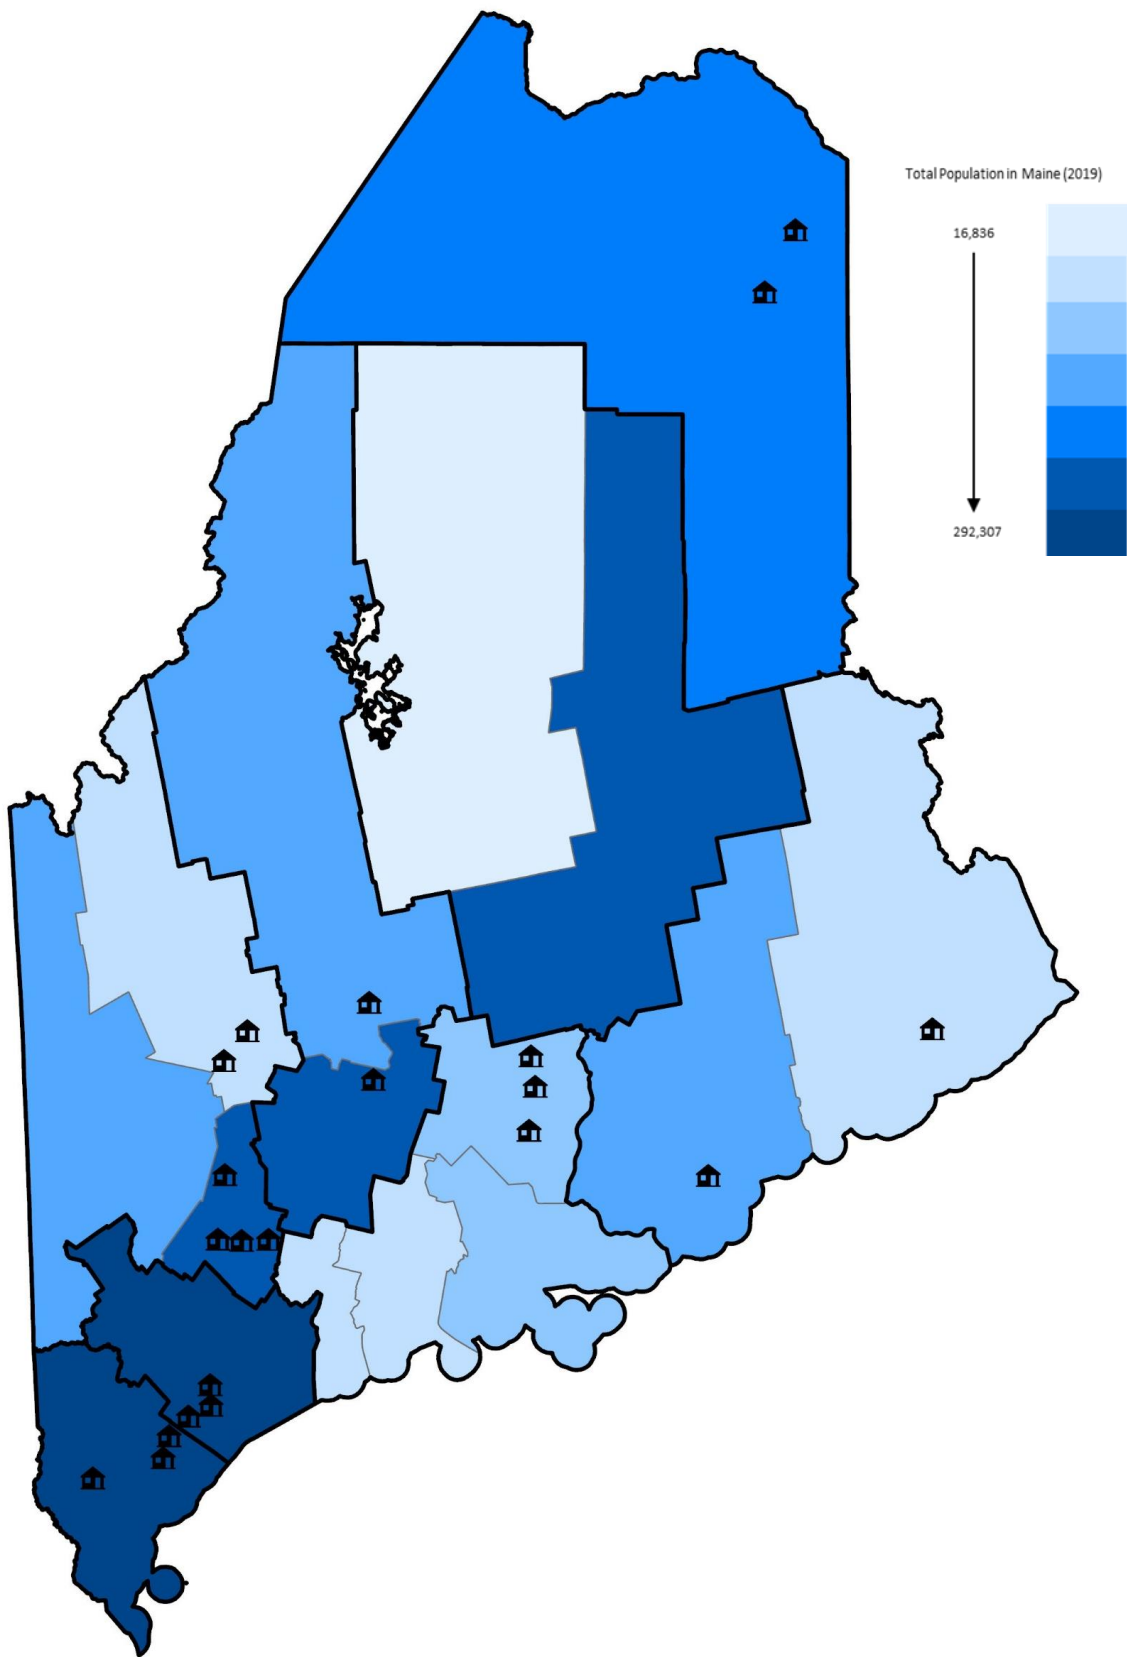

Reading the map:
The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine live.

Each symbol shows a town with a higher education institution that has adopted tobacco-free policies through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Higher education institutions include both public and private post-secondary education institutions and proprietary schools in Maine.

Housing Properties that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

Reading the map:

The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine live.

Each symbol shows a town with a housing property that has adopted smoke-free policies through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. A town may have multiple housing properties that have adopted policies. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

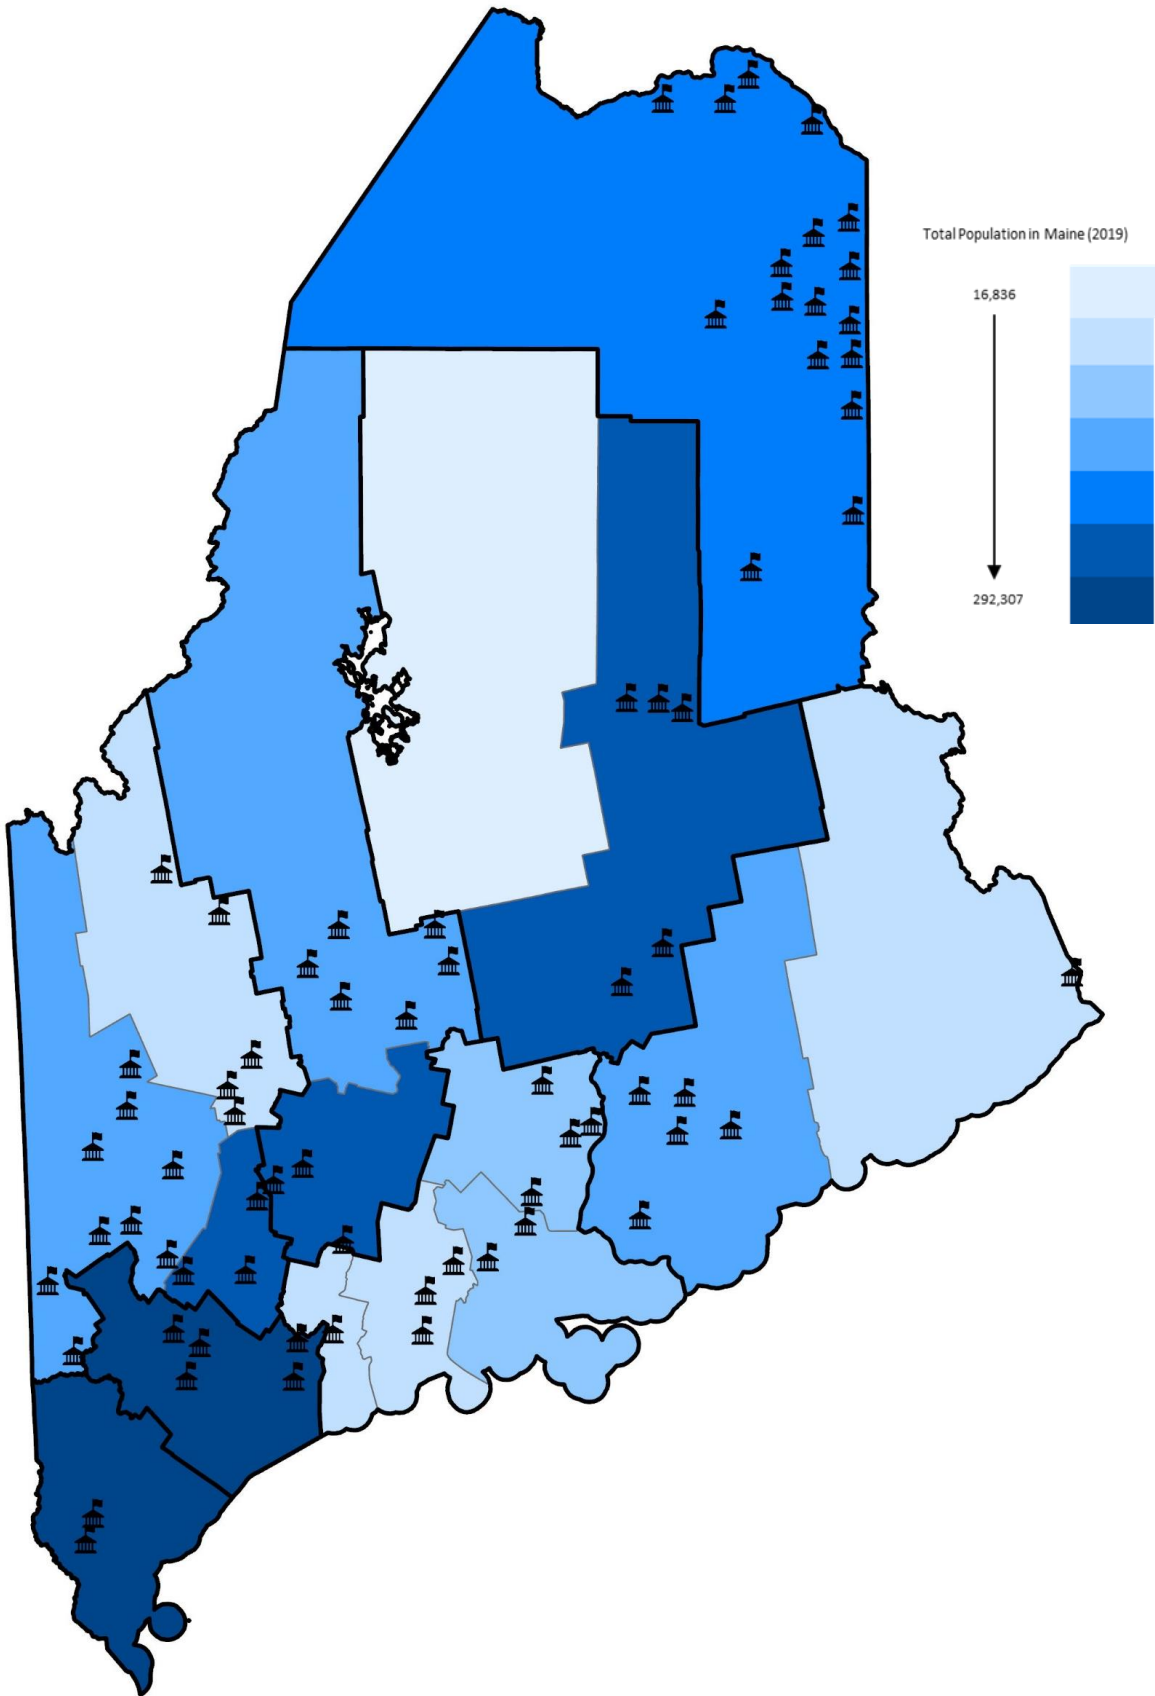

Housing properties include market rate, mixed rate, and subsidized rental housing properties in Maine.

MAINE
PREVENTION SERVICES

Land Governance Sites that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

Reading the map:

The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine live.

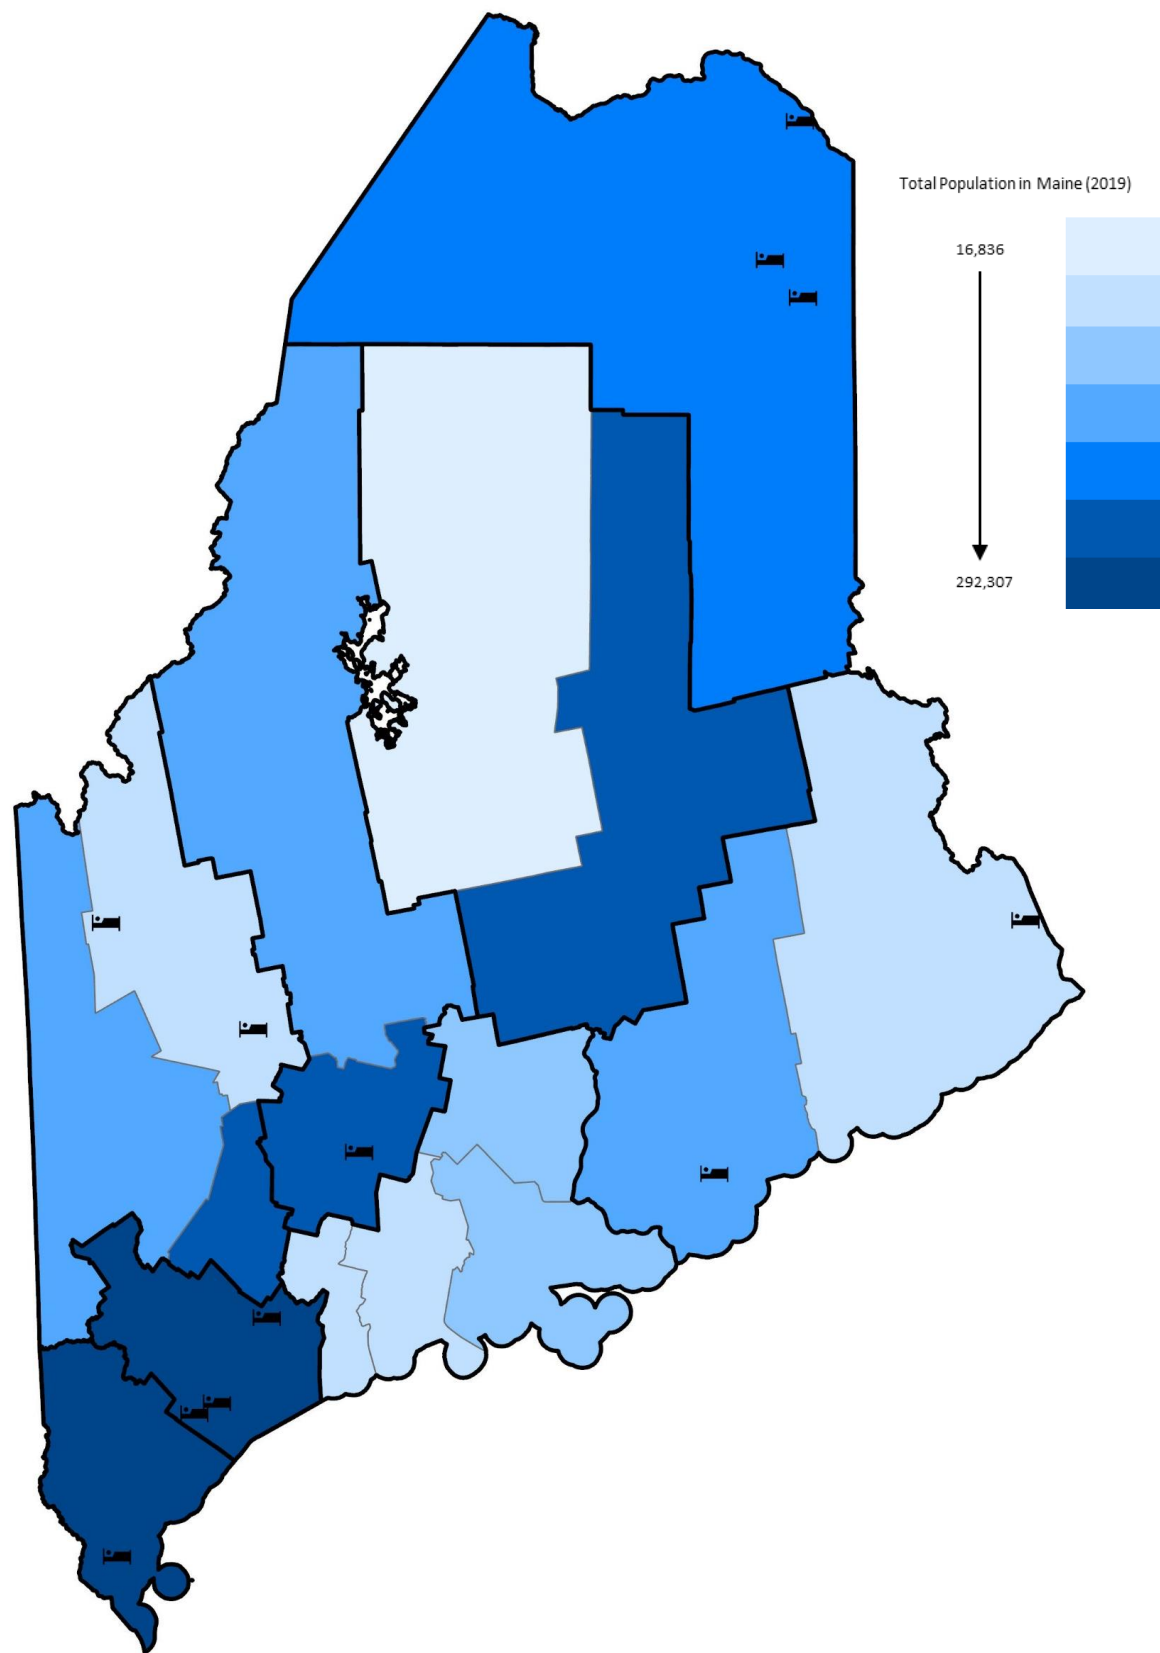

Each symbol shows a land governance site that has adopted tobacco-related ordinances, policies or resolutions through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Land governance includes municipalities, tribal governments, and may include public places that are owned and/or operated by a municipality, such as land trusts, private beaches, etc.

Lodging Establishments that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Population in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

Reading the map:

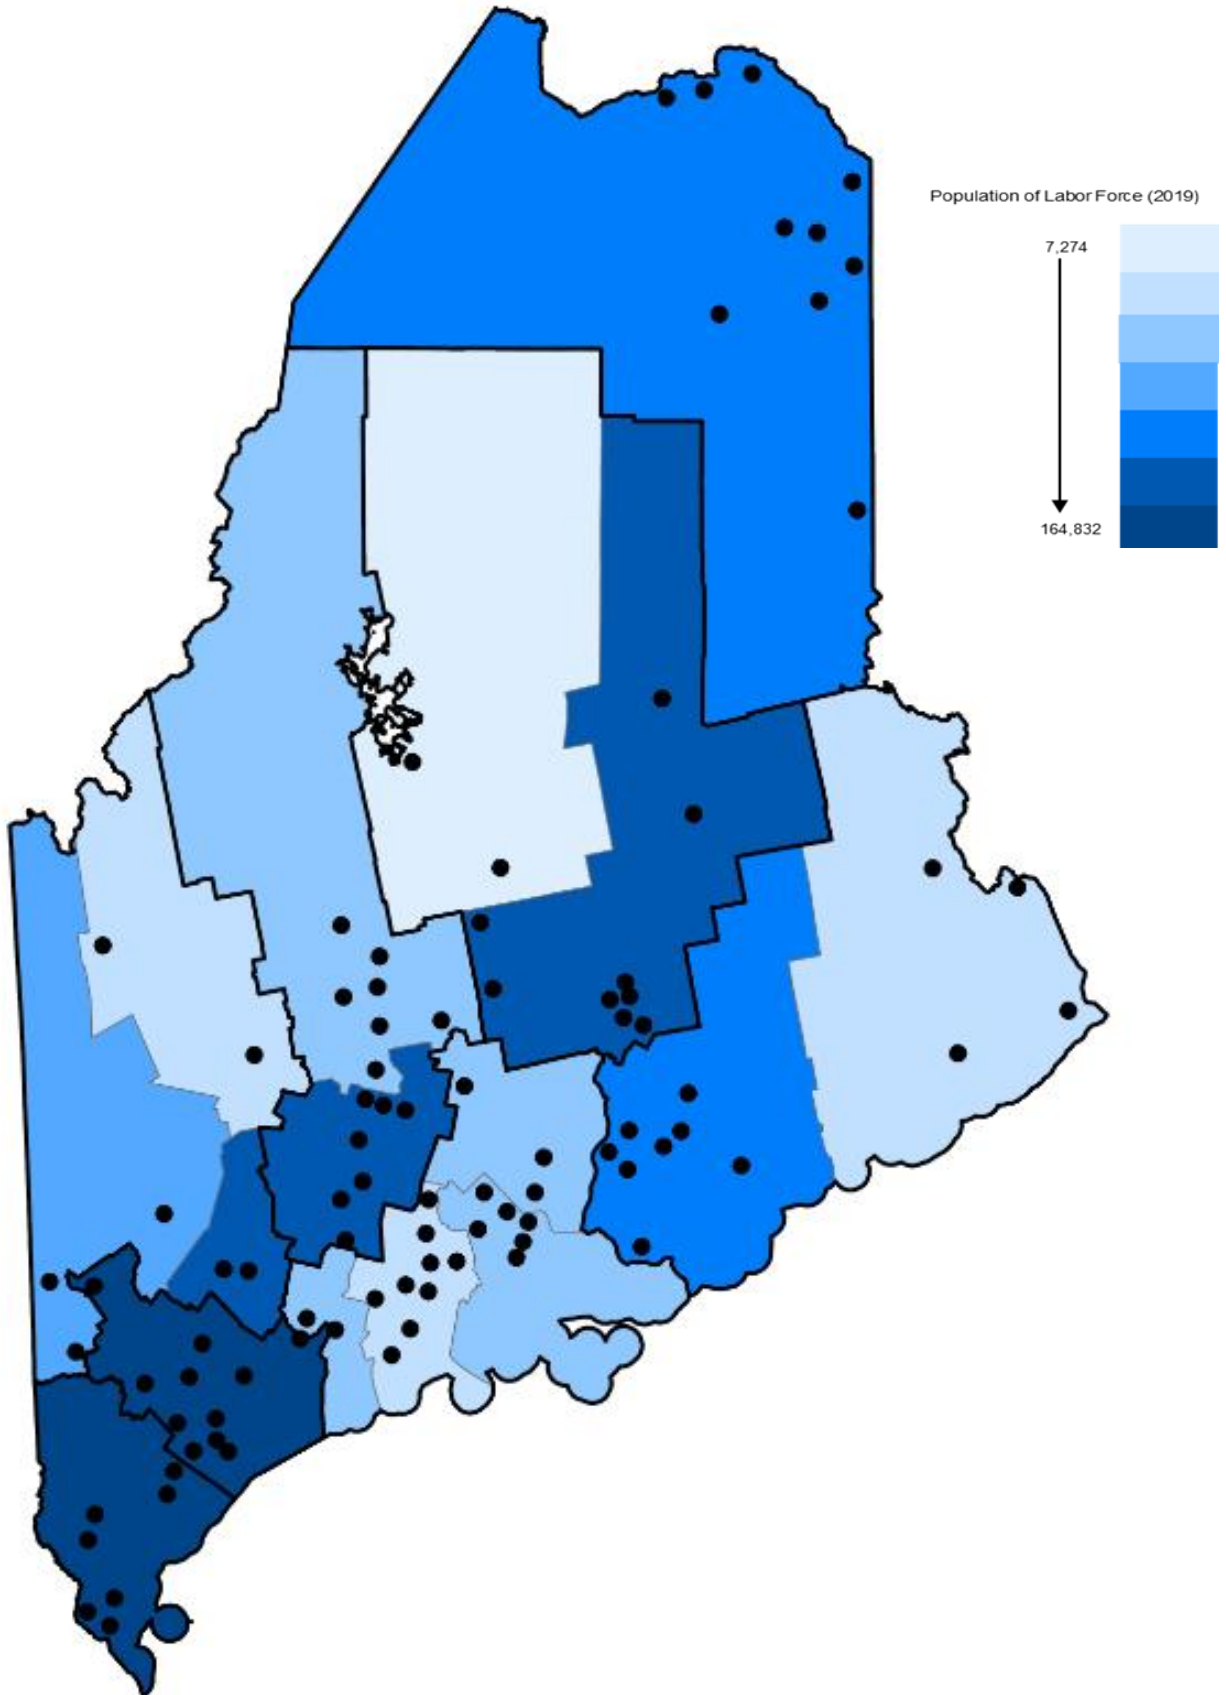

The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine live.

Each symbol shows a town with a lodging establishment that has adopted smoke-free policies through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. A town may have multiple lodging establishments that have adopted policies. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Lodging establishments are licensed sleeping accommodations in Maine that hold bed and breakfast licenses, lodging place licenses, and eating and lodging licenses. This may include bed and breakfasts, hotels, motels, etc.

Workplaces that Strengthened or Adopted New Tobacco Policies by Labor Force in Maine

Oct. 2016 – Sept. 2020

Reading the map:

The shades of blue categorize counties according to where people in Maine work.

Each symbol shows a town with a workplace that has adopted tobacco prevention, exposure, and cessation policies through engagement with the District Tobacco Prevention Partners between 2016 and 2020. A town may have multiple workplaces that have adopted policies. This work is part of the Maine Prevention Services Initiative.

Workplaces include school districts, early care and education sites, behavioral health sites, health care agencies, hospitals, higher educational institutions, municipalities and tribal governments.

