

TAILORED COMMERCIAL TOBACCO TREATMENT SERVICE LAUNCHED IN MAINE

The Maine QuitLink suite of services has been expanded to include the American Indian Commercial Tobacco Program.

American Indian Commercial Tobacco Program provides free, culturally-tailored help, including:

- 10 coaching calls with dedicated native coaches
- Support to create a customized quit plan
- Up to 12 weeks of free patches, gum or lozenges
- An online dashboard with access to educational materials, quit planning, quit progress tracking and an online community
- A focus on commercial tobacco use, including cigarettes, vaping, and smokeless tobacco

The program is free, confidential, and was developed with feedback from Tribal members across several states.
